(Name & Number)

I understand that HARI Temple has arranged for independent third parties to provide transportation for this Trip. I understand that there are risks inherent to the Trip, including risks of injury or death from traveling in motor vehicles, consuming commercially prepared food, and walking to, from, and within the places of visit.

In consideration of the services of HARI Temple, I agree that HARI Temple shall not be liable for any injuries or damage whatsoever, including death, to me or my property. This agreement is not a release of the obligations or responsibilities that any third party provider or other person may have. On behalf of myself, my heirs, personal representatives, assigns, and successors, I waive and release HARI Temple, its office bearers from all claims, demands, injuries, damages, actions, or causes of action I may now or in the future have against HARI Temple, relating to or arising from my participation in the Trip.

I/WE CONSENT to the above conditions. I/WE further state that the foregoing Release and Waiver of All Claims has been carefully read and I/we know of the contents thereof and have signed the same by my/our own free act.
